Thirty-eight lead quilters, most of whom attended workshops in collaborative quilt-making and dialogue facilitation, worked with single faith communities as well as multi-faith and inter-faith groups on fifty-seven faith quilts which will hang permanently in churches, mosques, temples, synagogues, and community centers in the Greater Boston area. Several of the quilts will be displayed at Harvard Divinity School in Fall 2006. More at www.faithquilts.org

The exhibit may be viewed when the chapel is open and free of activities. Please do not enter the chapel while groups or classes are meeting.
